ST. ANDREW'S MEMORIAL

SERVICES YESTERDAY LED BY THE BISHOP.

About Six Hundred People Hear Music, Lessons and the Sermon—Eloquent Tribute to the Queen.

Bishop Willis yesterday afternoon conducted services in St. Andrew's cathedral in honor of the memory of the late Queen Victoria. Though the weather was not the best, the auditorium was filled. The audience was composed of people in all walks of political, business and social life, including government and consular officials.

The cathedral was beautifully decorated with the flags of those nations whose representatives had accepted invitations to be present. The massive pillar on the South side was enwrapped in a large flag of the United States while that on the north displayed the flags of Great Britain and Germany. The pillars in the chancel were hung with the flags of Russia and Italy, France and Austria-Hungary. Those in the nave displayed the flags of Spain, Portugal, Sweden and Norway, Denmark and Belgium. The Chinese flag was placed over the south door, the Hawaiian over the west door. Bands of mourning encircled the capitals from which the flags were suspended, a large bow and streamers of crepe being on the Union Jack.

The Bishop was attended by the Rev. Kong Yin Tet as chaplain who carried the Pastoral Staff. The choir which was composed of the Cathedral choir, the evening surpliced choir of the second congregation, and the pupils of St. Andrew's Priory, numbered sixty voices.

The Anthem "The Righteous Soul" was sung, unaccompanied, by Mr. and Mrs. Vaniman, Mrs. Hoffman and Mr. F. W. Beardslee.

The whole service was much indebted for its effect to Wray Taylor, who presided at the organ.

Promptly at 3 o'clock the great organ began to read the notes of the funeral march, and the surpliced choir took its position. The audience then chanted the Episcopal burial service "I am the resurrection and the life, etc." Rev. Dr. Wraymouth read the first lesson and Rev. Hamilton Lee the second.

The text of the sermon by the Bishop was 1 Chron. XXIX: 28, "David died in a good old age, full of days, riches and honor; and Solomon, his son, reigned in his stead." The speaker at first referred to the death of the Queen and to how the news was received in all parts of the world. There was something similar to it, he thought, in the death of David thirty centuries ago when there was mourning from Dan to Beersheba.

He believed that the attachment to the throne of Victoria would linger there and that loyalty to Edward VII would be complete, and that his reign would be most brilliant.

From this point to the close of his address the Bishop dwelt upon the history of the Queen and her reign, and the character of the good woman.

About six hundred people participated in the services and heard the sermon.

W. K. VANDERHILT TO WED.
Will Marry Woman Whose Husband Preferred Another.

NEW YORK, February 1.—New York society is greatly interested in the news received from Hot Springs, S. D., this afternoon that Mrs. Paul Capley Hunt has been granted a divorce from the noted architect, Richard Howland Hunt. Both have been prominent in New York Society. Mrs. Hunt is a very beautiful woman and the sister of Mrs. Oliver Harriman, wife of the railroad magnate who looks after the financial affairs of the Vanderbilts. What makes the affair most interesting is persistent reports that William K. Vanderbilt will soon wed the fair divorcee. Vanderbilt is now in South Dakota, and, if reports are true, he will accompany Mrs. Hunt and her mother at once to Florida where his palatial yacht is waiting to take them on an extended cruise.

During the Spanish-American war Mrs. Hunt became a hospital nurse and endeared herself to the soldiers, who called her the "Army Angel." When she returned from Camp Black her husband received her coldly, and calmly announced that he loved the wife of his former friend and wealthy clubman, Walter Watrous. "I don't care for my wife and children," Hunt said. "I love this woman and she loves me." A double divorce was finally agreed upon and Mrs. Hunt and Mrs. Watrous left for South Dakota on the same train. Mrs. Watrous will wed Hunt.

CAPTAIN McCALLA VINDICATED.
WASHINGTON, February 1.—The case against Captain McCalla of the Newark has been dropped. The court of inquiry has vindicated Captain McCalla, and Admiral Remy has transferred Commander Colwell, his accuser, from the Newark to the Cavite naval station.

ANOTHER GIFT BY HELEN GOULD.
NEW YORK, February 1.—The statement is published that Miss Helen Gould has given $400,000 for the land, building and equipment of a home for a naval branch of the Young Men's Christian Association.

SUICIDE OF EXILED DUELLIST.
MILWAUKEE (Wis.), February 1.—Carl Dammann, until recently a captain in the German army and related to persons of wealth and title in Berlin, committed suicide today because of the disgrace and poverty brought about by his violation of Emperor William's anti-duelling orders.

ARNOLD'S SON SENTENCED.
LONDON, January 25.—At the Old Bailey today Julian T. B. Arnold, son of Sir Edwin Arnold, who was ordered extradited from San Francisco in October last, charged with misappropriating trust funds, was sentenced to ten years' penal servitude.

THEIR CLAIMS SET AT REST.
The claim of other cough medicines to be as good as Chamberlain's are effectually set at rest in the following testimonial of Mr. C. D. Glass, an employe of Bartlett & Dennis Co., Gardiner, Me. He says: "I had kept adding to a cold and cough in the winter of 1897, trying every cough medicine I heard of without permanent help, until one day I was in the drug store of Mr. Houckman and he advised me to try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and offered to pay back my money if I was not cured. My lungs and bronchial tubes were very sore at this time, but I was completely cured by this remedy, and have since always turned to it when I get a cold, and soon find relief. I also recommend it to my friends and am glad to say it is the best of all cough medicines." For sale by all dealers, Benson, Smith & Company, general agents, Hawaiian Islands.
